U. S. IS TAKING ATLANTIC SHIPS FOR WAR NEEDS

Interesting news as to the requisitioning of vessels has come from the New York office of Alexander & Baldwin. A letter received by a recent mail says in part:
"During the past fortnight the United States Army and Navy departments have requisitioned 12 vessels plying in the coastwise and Cuban trades. Besides those vessels plying in the coastwise trade, vessels of the New York-Cuba Mail Co., the Mallory line and the United Fruit Company have been included in those vessels requisitioned. It is understood that the government will further requisition 10 or 12 vessels to carry supplies to the Allied countries. Lines which are expected to contribute some steamers for this purpose are the Southern Pacific, the Clyde line, the Munson line and the Bull Inland line. Companies of the above having vessels in the sugar trade are the Porto Rican line and the Bull Inland line to Porto Rico, and the Munson Steamship Company line to Cuba."

Schofield Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 22.—On Sunday evening Dr. J. R. Judd of Honolulu gave a most interesting illustrated lecture on the European war to the soldiers and officers at Schofield Barracks. The lecture was held at the 25th Infantry amusement hall and a particularly large crowd was present. Dr. Judd gave a very interesting account of his two years with the French Hospital Corps and had many interesting pictures and weapons to show the audience. A small admission was charged and a very big sum was received, which will be turned over to the French Orphans' Fund.

The Castner garage, which was destroyed by fire in May, is being rebuilt by the proprietor, Mr. Powell, and already the frame and roof have been put up. The new building is much larger than the old one, as it will be 50x100 feet with a cement floor, and will have all of the modern machinery. It is contemplated to complete the building and install all machinery by July 1st, when it will be open for work.

Captain Elvid Hunt, Adjutant, 1st Infantry, is in charge of the new lieutenants and reserve officers for instruction. A school has been commenced and daily these new officers receive instruction in their new duties in the army. All have been attached to the 1st Infantry and have taken quarters in the 1st Infantry garrison.

During the past week the 1st Infantry Exchange Officer, Captain Robert M. Brambila, has made many changes in the 1st Infantry exchange building. Much to the delight of the "movie fans," the seats in the amusement hall have been raised and now the hundreds of officers and men of the garrison who visit it each night can see all of the pictures or plays that are given. An addition to the main building also has been made, which gives more room for the ice cream parlor and cigar stand.

Schofield Barracks will see several changes in regimental commanders within the next few days, according to cable advices from Washington. The 1st Infantry will be commanded by Colonel William Weigel, who has been Lt. Col. of the 2nd Infantry at Fort Shafter for the past year. Colonel Earl C. Carnahan, who has been with the 1st Infantry as Lt. Col., will command the 25th Infantry. Colonel T. N. Horn will command the 9th Artillery. Colonel Frank H. Albright will return to the mainland to command the 5th Infantry. The Colonel has been with the 25th Infantry for several years.

COMPANY C, SHAFTER, WINS TARGET HONORS

Company C, 2nd Infantry, Capt. John Randolph, commanding, made the highest record for expert riflemen and sharpshooters of the 1st Battalion which has just completed its known-distance target practice on the Fort Shafter range.

This company has 13 expert riflemen, 16 sharpshooters and 22 marksmen, making a total of 61 men who will draw extra pay during the coming year.

NEW ZEALAND HAS NO KICK ON CONSCRIPTION

"New Zealand is satisfied with conscription and Australia may have it soon," is the word brought to Honolulu by Hon. E. Mitchelson, a statesman and business man of note who has been in three New Zealand ministries. He is at the Plesian hotel with Mrs. Mitchelson and came in last week.

Mr. Mitchelson says New Zealand is furnishing about 2000 men a month, who go to Egypt or England for stiff training if boats, which are scarce, can be found to transport them. They are marched through the streets of Sydney en route to show Australians who recently voted the labor and anti-conscription party out of power, how New Zealand conscripts look.

The visitor, who is over 70, says it took him four weeks to get out of Australia, while younger men have to post enormous bonds to get away for a few weeks' trip.

Y. M. VACATION SCHOOL OPENED

Study as a vacation sport isn't ordinarily supposed to be in favor with boys, yet the group of sixth, seventh and eighth grade boys who began their work in the Boys' Vacation school at the Y. M. C. A. this morning seem to upset theories along this line. The program of gymnasium games, hikes and swimming in the big pool, all of which is a feature of the school, seems to be the sugar-coat on the study pill. These boys have enthusiastically commenced a five weeks' course in review of school subjects under the instruction of a faculty of men teachers who are giving the boys coaching in English, arithmetic and other special subjects.

It was announced this morning that a special class for boys who will enter high school in the fall will be added to the school program. Boys who want coaching in special subjects in preparation for high school work will be admitted tomorrow morning. School opens at 8 a. m. and class work continues until 11 a. m. Ross Page, W. W. Brier, E. S. Lancaster and W. C. Ross compose the faculty.

When Your Eyes Need Care

Physical Directors G. E. Jackson and C. A. Pease have charge of the gymnasium work. Hikes are scheduled for Friday afternoons. Other boys desiring to enter the school may enroll with Boys' Secretary Donald Ladd this evening or tomorrow morning.

NEW THOUGHT CONFERENCE TO BE HELD TOMORROW MORNING AND EVENING

Mrs. Van Anderson Gordon, a visitor to Hawaii, will address both meetings of the annual New Thought conference which will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30, and again in the evening at 7:45 in the Kilohana Art League hall, corner Beretania and Miller streets. Mrs. Gordon is considered an authority on New Thought. She is a brilliant and forceful speaker, and has been called upon to address classes in her chosen subject in various cities all over the world. She is a widely traveled woman, and the several books she has published touch upon conditions as she has found them in other lands as well as in her native America. She has founded a church called the Illumined Right. Her topic tomorrow evening will be New Thought in relation to the war. Miss Harrison, organist at Central Union church, will play at the morning conference and Miss Pearl Josephson will be heard in the evening. Everyone interested in New Thought, and the public in general, will be heartily

MEMENTO TO JACK LONDON PROPOSED FOR HONOLULU

The model of the proposed drinking fountain as a memorial to Jack London, designed by Gordon Osborn, will be seen next Saturday evening at the Hawaiian artists' exhibit of paintings in the Pan-Pacific building, Bishop square. When the Outrigger club meets July 24 that organization will be asked to set aside for the fountain a small piece of land on the Outrigger grounds where London wrote some of his first stories.

HILLOISTS HAVE NEW DAILY; TRIBUNE IN FIELD

Beginning July 1, the Hilo Tribune, heretofore a weekly publication, will branch out into a daily newspaper, according to an editorial announcement in the last edition. A. L. MacKay, editor, says, among other things, that, as a morning paper, the Tribune proposes to be Republican in principle. John M. Kilpatrick, a Bridgeport policeman, residing at 198 Sixth street, was killed by a live wire at Beardsley Park.
